17 I.
18 INTRODUCTION

19 On February 23, 2015, Mr. Herrera-Hernandez filed a motion to dismiss the 20 information due to an invalid deportation. See Dkt No. 24. In his motion, Mr. Herrera-
21 Hernandez argued that he was eligible for withdrawal of application at his 2008 and 2009
22 expedited removal proceedings. Mr. Herrera-Hernandez further argued that his due process
23 rights were violated because immigration officers failed to provide him with Mixteco 24 interpretive services and failed to read to him or allow him to read his statements.

25 On March 5, 2015, the government filed its response to Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's 26 motion. In its response, the government spent most of its briefing on the argument that 27 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's motion should be denied as untimely. See Dkt. 30, Govt's Resp.
28 at 3-9. Only on page 9 of a 14 page response did the government address the merits of

1 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's motion. Id. The government argued that Mr. Herrera-
2 Hernandez's due process rights were not violated because he comprehended and spoke
3 Spanish at the time of the Expedited Removals. The government further argues that 4 prejudice cannot be established because Mr. Herrera-Hernandez cannot show humanitarian 5 considerations.

6 The Court should reject the government's arguments. The government's position
7 regarding the untimeliness of the motion has no merit and reveals the government's 8 fundamental failure to understand its discovery obligations under Rule 16. With regards to 9 the due process violations, the government's position that Mr. Herrera-Hernandez spoke and 10 understood Spanish is undermined by the evidence before the court. Given that there is a 11 factual dispute on the language issue, this Court should hold an evidentiary hearing to 12 resolve the factual dispute. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(d) ("When factual issues are involved 13 in deciding a motion, the court must state its essential findings on the record"). Finally, the 14 government wholly ignores many of the prejudice arguments raised in the Motion to Dismiss 15 and fails to adequately address the remaining arguments.

16 II.
17 GOOD CAUSE HAS BEEN SHOWN AS TO WHY THE MOTION TO DISMISS
18 COULD NOT BE FILED 21 DAYS PRIOR TO THE JANUARY 29, 2015 MOTION
19 HEARING DATE

20 Under Rule 12, "good cause" may be shown as to why a motion to dismiss was not 21 filed by the deadline set by the Court. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(e); see also U.S. v. Aguilera-
22 Rios, 769 F.3d 626, 630 (9th Cir. 2014) (finding that good cause had been shown in the 23 context of a 1326(d) motion). Mr. Herrera-Hernandez has made this showing. The 24 government's claim that the Motion to Dismiss could have been filed by January 8, 2015 is 25 without merit. As explained in detail in Defense Counsel's affidavit to the Motion to 26 Dismiss, defense counsel requested A-file discovery on November 18, 2014. See Def. Mot., 27 Ex. I. Despite this request, the government failed to produce the A-file discovery in time for 28 the motion to be filed by January 8.

1 A. Mr. Herrera-Hernandez requested A-file discovery on November 18, 2014,
2 thereby triggering the government’s disclosure requirements under Rule 16.

3 Throughout its Response, the government makes it seem as if defense counsel never 4 requested A-file discovery. See Govt’s Resp. at p. 6 (“Her own declaration and the 5 correspondence between the parties shows that all she had to do was ask.”); id. at p. 7
6 (“Therefore, even if counsel felt additional documents were necessary to begin work on the 7 motion, Defendant needed only to request them.”). The assertion that defense counsel did
8 not “ask” or “request” the A-file discovery is contradicted by the record.<sup>1</sup>

9 As indicated in defense counsel’s declaration, counsel “asked” and “requested” that 10 A-file discovery be produced as early as November 18, 2014, one day after being appointed 11 to represent Mr. Herrera-Hernandez. See Def. Mot., Ex. I at ¶2. The letter specifically 12 makes the following requests:

13 Defendant's Statements. We request the government disclose any and all 14 written, recorded and oral statements made by the defendant, as well any 15 written summaries of any oral statements by my client contained in the 16 handwritten notes of any Government agent. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A). The 17 Advisory Committee Notes and the 1991 amendments to Rule 16 make clear
18 that the Government must reveal all of the defendant's, whether written or oral, 19 regardless of whether the Government intends to make any use of those 20 statements.

21 “A-File.” We request an opportunity for defense counsel and/or a defense
22 investigator to inspect and copy the entire contents of the immigration “A-23 File” at a time mutually convenient to both parties.

24 Tangible Objects. We request the opportunity to inspect, copy, and test, as 25 necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs,
26 books, papers, documents, fingerprint analyses, or copies of portions thereof,
27 which are material to the defense, intended for use in the Government’s 28 case-in-chief, or were obtained from or belong to my client. Fed. R. Crim. P.
16(a)(1)(E). Specifically, we request copies of the audio tapes of any and all alleged prior deportation or removal hearings.

25 <sup>1</sup> As requested by the Court at the Motion Hearing, defense counsel included an 26 affidavit outlining the correspondence between the parties regarding A-file discovery. The 27 government states that it “does not agree [with] a number of points in this timeline,” however 28 it fails to address which points it does not agree with, nor does government counsel provide his own affidavit outlining his timeline of events.

1 See Ex. A (emphasis in original). There is no ambiguity in this request. Not only did the 2 discovery letter request documents from the A-file explicitly, it also requested disclosure of 3 defendant's statements, which are contained in many of the A-file documents. The A-file 4 discovery in possession of the government clearly falls into both of these categories of the 5 request.

6 Contrary to what the government suggests, it is not defense counsel's burden to 7 specify exactly which A-file documents be produced. See Govt. Resp. At 7. After all,
8 defense counsel has no ability to know what all is contained within the A-file since the A-file 9 is in the government's possession. What the government is claiming defense counsel should 10 do – make repeated, particularized requests for specific A-file documents – would expect
11 defense counsel to have knowledge of the contents of the A-file despite never having seen
12 it. That is impossible. More importantly, however, it is the opposite of what Rule 16
13 demands of the government.

14 B. The government misunderstands its discovery obligations under Rule 16.

15 The government's attempt to shirk its discovery obligations by shifting the burden to 16 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez to make specific, particularized requests reveals its fundamental 17 misunderstanding of Rule 16.

18 Federal Rule of Criminal Procedure 16 provides, in pertinent part, that:

19 upon a defendant's request, the government must disclose to the defendant, and 20 make available for inspection, copying, or photographing, . . . (i) any relevant 21 written or recorded statement by the defendant if: the statement is within the 22 government's possession, custody, or control; and the attorney for the 23 government knows – or through due diligence could know – that the statement exists; (ii) the portion of any written record containing the substance of any relevant oral statement made before or after arrest if the defendant made the statement in response to interrogation by a person the defendant knew was a government agent.

24 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B)(i) and (ii) (emphasis added). Rule 16 also provides:

25 upon a defendant's request, the government must permit the defendant to 26 inspect . . . documents . . . or copies or portions of any of these items, if the item is within the government's possession, custody, or control and: (I) the item is material to preparing the defense[.]

27
28 Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E)(I) (emphasis added).

1 In this case, the A-file discovery requested falls into both of these categories of Rule
2 16. The Record of Sworn Statements that correspond to all of Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's
3 removals are recorded statements of Mr. Herrera-Hernandez within the government's control
4 that the government knew existed. Moreover, these are statements that Mr. Herrera-
5 Hernandez made in response to interrogation by immigration officers. The A-file discovery
6 is also unquestionably "material" to the defense. The Ninth Circuit has recognized that Rule
7 16 grants criminal defendants a:

8 broad right to discovery, requiring disclosure of all documents material to 9 preparing the defense. Rule 16 is thus broader than Brady. Information that 10 is not exculpatory or impeaching may still be relevant to developing a possible 11 defense.

11 United States v. Muniz-Jaquez, 718 F.3d 1180, 1183 (9th Cir. 2013). The A-file discovery
12 sought clearly satisfies the low threshold of materiality. See United States v. Hernandez-
13 Meza, 720 F.3d 760, 768 (9th Cir. 2013) (materiality is satisfied so long as "the information 14 would have helped" the defendant prepare a defense). Indeed, the government does not 15 appear to dispute the materiality of the A-file discovery in its Response.

16 Should the government attempt to excuse or explain its failure to timely produce the 17 A-file discovery because the A-file was not in the physical possession of the U.S. Attorney's 18 Office, it would be misguided. Federal prosecutors are deemed to have possession and 19 control over material held by other federal agencies as long as they have "knowledge of" and 20 "access" to that material. United States v. Santiago, 46 F.3d 885, 893 (9th Cir. 1995); see 21 also United States v. Bryan, 868 F.2d 1032, 1036 (9th Cir. 1989) ("The prosecutor will be 22 deemed to have knowledge of and access to anything in the possession, custody, or control 23 of any federal agency participating in the same investigation of the defendant."). Thus, for 24 purposes of Rule 16, possession can be imputed to federal prosecutors even if they do not 25 physically possess the materials.

26 The Ninth Circuit has emphasized the importance of the government's 27 compliance with its disclosure obligation in Hernandez-Meza by stating: "It thus behooves
28 the government to interpret the disclosure requirement broadly and turn over whatever evidence it has pertaining to the case.” 720 F.3d at 768-769 (emphasis added).

C. The government misrepresents that it produced all “necessary” discovery to the Motion to Dismiss in November.

In its Response, the government argues that the initial discovery batch sent over on November 28, 2014 contained all discovery “necessary” to file the Motion to Dismiss. See Govt. Resp. at 5. That is simply not true. As this court is well aware, there are three removals at issue in this case – a 2008 Expedited Removal, 2009 Expedited Removal, and a 2011 Reinstatement of the 2009 Expedited Removal. See Def. Mot. at 5-7. The government concedes in its Response that the only A-file discovery it produced in November was the A-file discovery related to the 2008 Expedited Removal. See Govt. Resp. at 6. The claim that its production of a printout from the Department of Homeland Security’s US-VISIT database listing a February 23, 2009 entry and removal was sufficient to enable defense counsel to file a Motion to Dismiss based on the 2009 Expedited Removal is unfounded. As government counsel should be aware after reading the Motion to Dismiss, the mere fact of removal is not sufficient to support the claim that a deportation was unlawful. See Def. Mot. at 8-9 (laying out the requirements for collaterally attacking a removal order). The US-VISIT printout does not include the grounds of removability or provide any way to analyze whether due process violations occurred that resulted in prejudice.

As laid out in the timeline submitted by the defense, which the government does not dispute, the government did not produce the actual A-file documents related to the 2009 Expedited Removal until January 22, 2015. How the government can claim that the Motion to Dismiss could have been filed two weeks earlier – by January 8, 2015 – is difficult to understand.

D. Nothing about the Fast Track program excuses the government’s failure to produce the relevant A-file discovery.

The government cannot use the Fast-Track program as a way to avoid producing relevant A-file discovery. Clearly the government recognizes the A-file discovery is 1 relevant, which is why it is produced in Fast-Track. Interestingly enough, no where in the 2 Response does the government explain why all of the A-file discovery was not produced

3 during the first production on November 28, 2014. Had all of the A-file discovery been 4 produced on that date, this issue regarding timeliness would have been moot. On November
5 28, the government did produce some, but not all, documents related to the 2008 Expedited
6 Removal and the 2011 Reinstatement. Presumably, the A-file was in the U.S. Attorney's 7 Office as of that date – nothing in the government's Response states otherwise. The 8 government fails to provide any explanation for why it chose to cherry pick A-file
9 documents to turn over in November, rather than producing a complete set of all A-file 10 discovery.<sup>2</sup>

11 III.
12 MR. HERRERA-HERNANDEZ'S HAS ESTABLISHED A DUE PROCESS
13 VIOLATION

14 In his Motion to Dismiss, Mr. Herrera-Hernandez argues that his due process rights
15 were violated because his Expedited Removal proceedings occurred in Spanish, a language
16 which he does not understand. The government takes issue with this claim, arguing that 17 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's "self-serving" declaration that he speaks Mixteco is contradicted 18 by the evidence, namely the Record of Sworn Statements. See Govt. Resp. At 10. However, 19 the Record of Sworn Statements are merely the officers' characterizations of answers an 20 individual provided – they are not a full and accurate reflection of the answer actually 21 provided.

22 A. The Record Of Sworn Statement Does Not Support The Claim That
23 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez Understood Spanish

24 The government's primarily argues that the "Records of Sworn Statements for both 25 removals indicate that Defendant was able to provide the immigration officers . . . with

26 <sup>2</sup> The Fast Track plea agreement received by defense counsel included a deportation
27 date of May 18, 2011. The government knew that defense counsel would need all of the 28 removal documents related to that removal, and any underlying removal documents if it were a reinstatement, to go forward with a change of plea.

1 answers to questions regarding his background, his citizenship, his entry into the United
2 States, and his deportation history.” See Govt. Resp. at 10. There are no audio or video
3 recordings of the interviews from 2008 and 2009. However, the evidence makes clear that 4 Records of Sworn Statements are not accurate reflections of what is actually said during 5 immigration interviews.

6 The easiest way to illustrate this point is by comparing Mr. Herrera-Hernandez’s post-
7 arrest statement on November 15, 2014 (which was videotaped) to the Record of Sworn 8 Statement created based on that post-arrest statement. For example, on the question of 9 citizenship, the following exchange takes place:

10 BPA: Of what country are you citizen?

11 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez: [unintelligible] Prieto.

12 BPA: What?

13 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez: [unintelligible] Prieto.

14 BPA: I don’t understand. Uh, are you Mexican?

15 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez: Yes, Mixtec.

16 BPA: Oh, Mixtec.

17 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez: Yes.

18 See Exhibit B, Full Transcript of Nov. 15, 2014 Post-Arrest Statement. The question
19 regarding citizenship – a very basic question – is posed to Mr. Herrera-Hernandez three 20 times before he answers “Mixtec.”<sup>3</sup> The Record of Sworn Statement, however, reflects a 21 very different exchange:

22 Q. Of what country are you a citizen?

23 A. Mixteco.

24 Q. Are you a citizen of Mexico?

25 A. Yes, Mexican.

26 See Exhibit C, 2015 Record of Sworn Statement. Not only does the Record of Sworn 27 Statement omit the multiple times the question needed to be posed, it also omits Mr. Herrera-28

<sup>3</sup> Despite Mr. Herrera-Hernandez telling officers that he is Mixteco, the officers did not ask him if he spoke Mixteco or attempt to seek Mixteco interpretive assistance, despite the evidence that he was having trouble understanding their questions. This seems to undermine Officer Lopez’s assertion that a translator would have been utilized had Mr. Herrera-Hernandez indicated that he was a Mixteco speaker. See Govt. Resp. at 11.

1 Hernandez's repeated response of "Prieto." More egregiously, the Record of Sworn 2 Statement makes it seem as if Mr. Herrera-Hernandez said "yes, Mexican" in response to the 3 basic question "are you a citizen of Mexico." As evidenced by the Transcript, that exchange
4 never happened.

5 The inaccuracy reflected in the 2015 Record of Sworn Statement undermines any 6 weight the government wants to place on the accuracy 2008 and 2009 statements. Both of 7 those statements reflect that Mr. Herrera-Hernandez said "Mexico" in response to the 8 question "What country are you a citizen of?" See Def. Mot. Exs. C and E. But comparison
9 of the 2015 post-arrest statement with the 2015 Record of Sworn Statement makes it seem 10 implausible that what happened in 2008 and 2009 was as straightforward as it appears on the 11 written statements.

12 B. The Government Does Not Sufficiently Address Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's
13 Argument That His Due Process Rights Were Violated

14 Mr. Herrera-Hernandez alleged due process violations for both his 2008 and 2009
15 Expedited Removals. The government responds to the arguments regarding the 2008
16 removal by attaching a declaration of Officer Lopez, claiming that a translator would have 17 been utilized had interpretive assistance been required. See Govt. Resp. Ex. 1. Notably,
18 Officer Lopez has no independent recollection of Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's removal 19 proceedings. See id. at ¶5. Further, his review of what happened in 2008 is based on the 20 Record of Sworn Statement, which is flawed as described above in Section A. See id. at ¶11.
21 Moreover, his comments regarding the typical practice to provide interpretive assistance is 22 undermined by the failure to provide interpretive assistance in 2014 despite Mr. Herrera-23 Hernandez saying he's "Mixteco." See id. at ¶16.

24 The government does not provide any evidence to counter Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's
25 declaration regarding what took place in 2009. See Def. Mot. Ex. A. There is no declaration 26 from Officer Ceja-Huante, who processed the 2009 Expedited Removal. Nor does the 27 government address the 2009 Record of Sworn Statement's failure to include the language 28 used and affirmative representation that no interpreter was used. See Def. Mot. Ex. E. The

1 government's failure to contest allegations regarding the 2009 Expedited Removal require
2 this Court to conclude that Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's due process rights were violated. See
3 U.S. v. Raya-Vaca, 771 F.3d 1195, 1205 (9th Cir. 2014) ("Taking into consideration Raya-
4 Vaca's declaration, the error on the Jurat, and the Government's failure to contest Raya-
5 Vaca's allegations, we hold that the immigration officer failed to advise Raya-Vaca of the 6 charge against him and to permit him to review the sworn statement, in contravention of 7 Raya-Vaca's due process rights").

8 IV.
9 MR. HERRERA-HERNANDEZ WAS PREJUDICED BY THIS DUE PROCESS VIOLATION

10 The government wholly ignores Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's argument that he has 11 established prejudice by showing that he was statutorily eligible for withdrawal of 12 application. See Def. Mot. at 14-16. Moreover, the government misses the mark on its 13 prejudice analysis under Raya-Vaca. The government solely focuses on the six factors of 14 the Inspector's Field Manual despite Raya-Vaca instructing that other non-enumerated
15 factors should be taken into account when evaluating plausibility. See 771 F.3d at 1208-
16 1209. Mr. Herrera-Hernandez has shown that non-enumerated factors like no criminal 17 history and no suspicion of alien smuggling make him better situated than the defendant in 18 Raya-Vaca. As to the enumerated factors, no where does Raya-Vaca hold that the 19 humanitarian consideration is limited to the specific facts present in that case. All that is 20 required is plausibility, not probability. Id. at 1206. Like in Raya-Vaca, Mr. Herrera-21 Hernandez's prejudice "resulted from" the due process violation.

22 V.
23 CONCLUSION

24 For the reasons stated above, Mr. Herrera-Hernandez's deportations cannot be used 25 to support a section 1326 conviction and the information must be dismissed.

Assistant United States Attorney

RE: United States v. Paulino Herrera Hernandez
Case No. 14MJ3850

Dear Ms. Cline:

I. Assertion of Fifth and Sixth Amendment Rights

I represent the defendant in the above-referenced criminal case. Please be advised that my client chooses to exercise the defendant's right under the Sixth Amendment to have all communication about this case (or any other criminal investigation for that matter) take place through counsel. My client does not wish to deal with any agent or employee of the government directly. Also, please note that California Rule of Professional Conduct § 2-100 bars any contact by you with a represented person such as my client. See United States v. Talao, 222 F.3d 1133 (9th Cir. 2000) (recognizing that Cal. Prof. Conduct Rule 2-100 prohibiting ex-parte contacts with represented parties applies to federal prosecutors); see also ABA Rule 4.2. Of course, the same is true for your agents.

Moreover, my client continues to invoke all Fifth and Sixth Amendment rights to remain silent and to have counsel present during any questioning by you, your agents, investigators or others working on your behalf. See Maine v. Moulton, 474 U.S. 159, 176 (1985) (Sixth Amendment violated when government obtains confession by knowingly circumventing accused's right to have counsel present in a confrontation between accused and government); Edwards v. Arizona, 451 U.S. 477, 484 (1981) (once accused has expressed desire to deal with law enforcement only through counsel, no interrogation may take place in absence of counsel unless accused initiates communication with law enforcement).

Because my client does not waive any rights pursuant to the Constitution's Fifth and Sixth Amendment and any applicable ethical rule, we request that you, your agents, investigators and any others working on your behalf refrain from communicating with my client in person or otherwise. We further ask that all communications between the parties be through counsel.

You are now on notice of my client's position in this matter. Please advise your agents, investigators and others working on your behalf accordingly.

II. Discovery Request

Pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 12(b)(4)(B), 16(a), and 26.2, Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963), and all other applicable rules and statutes, discovery requests are made as follows:

Defendant's Statements. We request the government disclose any and all written, recorded and oral statements made by the defendant, as well any written summaries of any oral statements by my client contained in the handwritten notes of any Government agent. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A). The Advisory Committee Notes and the 1991 amendments to Rule 16 make clear that the Government must reveal all of the defendant's, whether written or oral, regardless of whether the Government intends to make any use of those statements. We specifically request any audio and videotaped copies of any statements and any rough notes taken pertaining to the substance of my client's statements. Additionally, we request copies of the audio tapes of any of my client's alleged prior deportations or removals. Furthermore, pursuant to Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(B)(i), we request copies of the audio tapes of any taped telephone call made by my client while in custody.

Arrest Reports, Notes and Dispatch Tapes. We request that all arrest reports, notes, dispatch or any other tapes and TECS records that relate to the circumstances surrounding the arrest or any questioning, be turned over. This request includes, but is not limited to, any rough notes, records, reports, transcripts or other documents in which my client's statements or any other discoverable material is contained. Such material is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963). The Government must produce arrest reports, investigator's notes, memos from arresting officers, dispatch tapes, sworn statements, and prosecution reports pertaining to the defendant. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(A) and (B), Fed. R. Crim. P. 26.2.

"A-File." We request an opportunity for defense counsel and/or a defense investigator to inspect and copy the entire contents of the immigration "A-File" at a time mutually convenient to both parties.

Brady Material. We request all documents, statements, agents' reports, and tangible evidence favorable to the defendant on the issue of guilt and/or which affects the credibility of the Government's witnesses and the Government's case. Under Brady, impeachment as well as exculpatory evidence falls within the definition of evidence favorable to the accused. United States v. Bagley, 473 U.S. 667 (1985); United States v. Agurs, 427 U.S. 97 (1976). Further, Brady requires the government disclose any information that may result in a lower sentence under the sentencing guidelines, notwithstanding its advisory nature, because it is exculpatory and/or mitigating evidence.

Prior Record. We request disclosure of any prior criminal record. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(D). Specifically, we request a certified copy of the charging documents, plea and sentencing transcripts, and judgment and conviction of any prior conviction used to increase or adjust my client's sentence under the advisory guidelines.

Any Proposed 404(b) Evidence. Evidence of prior similar acts is discoverable under Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E) and Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) and 609. In addition, under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b), "upon request of the accused, the prosecution . . . shall provide reasonable notice in advance of trial . . . of the general nature . . ." of any evidence the government proposes to introduce under Fed. R. Evid. 404(b) at trial.

We request the government “articulate precisely the evidential hypothesis by which a fact of consequence may be inferred from the other acts evidence.” United States v. Mehrmanesh, 689 F.2d 822, 830 (9th Cir. 1982) (emphasis added; internal citations omitted); see also United States v. Brooke, 4 F.3d 1480, 1483 (9th Cir. 1993) (reaffirming Mehrmanesh and reversing convictions). We request three weeks notice before trial to give the defense time to adequately investigate and prepare for trial.

Evidence Seized. We request production of evidence seized as a result of any search, either warrantless or with a warrant. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E).

Request for Preservation of Evidence. We further specifically request the preservation of all physical evidence that may be destroyed, lost, or otherwise put out of the possession, custody, or care of the Government and which relates to the arrest or the events leading to the arrest in this case. This request includes, but is not limited to, the results of any fingerprint analysis, all my client's personal effects, and any evidence seized from my client.

Tangible Objects. We request the opportunity to inspect, copy, and test, as necessary, all other documents and tangible objects, including photographs, books, papers, documents, fingerprint analyses, or copies of portions thereof, which are material to the defense, intended for use in the Government's case-in-chief, or were obtained from or belong to my client. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(E). Specifically, we request copies of the audio tapes of any and all alleged prior deportation or removal hearings.

Expert Witnesses. We request the name, qualifications, and a written summary of the testimony of any person that the Government intends to call as an expert witness during its case in chief. Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(G). The defense requests the notice of expert testimony be provided a minimum of three weeks prior to trial so the defense can properly prepare to address and respond to this testimony, including obtaining its own expert and/or investigating the opinions, credentials of the Government's expert and a hearing in advance of trial to determine the admissibility of qualifications of any expert. See Kumho Tire Co., Ltd. v. Carmichael, 526 U.S. 137, 152 (1999) (trial judge is “gatekeeper” and must determine, reliability and relevancy of expert testimony and such determinations may require “special briefing or other proceedings”).

Scientific and Other Information. We moreover request the results of any scientific or other tests or examinations conducted by any Government agency or their subcontractors in connection with this case. See Fed. R. Crim. P. 16(a)(1)(F).

Henthorn Material. We request that the Assistant United States Attorney (“AUSA”) assigned to this case oversee (not personally conduct) a review of all personnel files of each agent involved in the present case for impeachment material. See Kyles v. Whitley, 514 U.S. 419 (1995) (holding that “the individual prosecutor has a duty to learn of any favorable evidence known to the others acting on the Government's behalf in the case, including the police”); United States v. Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir. 1991); United States v. Jennings, 960 F.2d 1488 (9th Cir. 1992) (AUSA may not be ordered to personally conduct examination of records; appropriate Government agency may review files and notify AUSA of contents as long as AUSA makes the determination regarding material to be disclosed); United States v. Herring, 83 F.3d 1120 (9th Cir. 1996) (accord).

Evidence of Bias or Motive to Lie. We request any evidence that any prospective Government witness is biased or prejudiced against the defendant, or has a motive to falsify or distort his or her testimony.

Impeachment Evidence. We request any evidence that any prospective Government witness has engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction and whether any witness has made a statement favorable to the defendant. See Fed. R. Evid. 608, 609 and 613; Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

Evidence of Criminal Investigation of Any Government Witness. We request any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by federal, state or local authorities for any criminal conduct.

Evidence Affecting Perception, Recollection, Ability to Communicate, or Truth Telling. We request any evidence, including any medical or psychiatric report or evaluation, that tends to show that any prospective witness' ability to perceive, remember, communicate, or tell the truth is impaired, and any evidence that a witness has ever used narcotics or other controlled substances, or has ever been an alcoholic.

Witness Addresses. We request the name and last known address of each prospective Government witness and the name and last known address of every witness to the crime or crimes charged (or any of the overt acts committed in furtherance thereof) who will not be called as a Government witness.

Name of Witnesses Favorable to the Defendant. We request the name of any witness who made an arguably favorable statement concerning my client or who could not identify the defendant or who was unsure of my client's identity, or participation in the crime charged.

Statements Relevant to the Defense. We request disclosure of any statement relevant to any possible defense or contention my client can or may assert in defense of the case.

Giglio Information and Agreements Between the Government and Witnesses. Pursuant to Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972), we request all statements and/or promises, express or implied, made to any witness, in exchange for their testimony in this case, and all other information which could be used for impeachment. We also request discovery regarding any other express or implicit promise, understanding, offer of immunity, of past, present, or future compensation, or any other kind of agreement, promise, or understanding, including any implicit understanding relating to criminal or civil income tax, forfeiture or fine liability, between any prospective Government witness and the Government (federal, state and/or local). This request also includes any discussion with a potential witness about or advice concerning any contemplated prosecution, or any possible plea bargain, even if no bargain was made, or the advice not followed, and specifically includes any discussion with a potential witness regarding that witness' immigration status and/or any affect that the witness' statements or lack thereof might have on that status, including the granting or revoking of such immigration status or any other immigration status, including but not limited to citizenship, nationality, a green card, border crossing card, parole letter, or permission to remain in the United States.

Informants and Cooperating Witnesses. We request disclosure of the names and addresses of all informants or cooperating witnesses used or to be used in this case, and in particular, disclosure of any informant who was a percipient witness in this case or otherwise participated in the crime charged against the defendant. The Government must disclose the informant's identity and location, as well as the existence of any other percipient witness unknown or unknowable to the defense. Roviaro v. United States, 353 U.S. 53, 61-62 (1957). The Government must disclose any information derived from informants which exculpates or tends to exculpate the defendant. Brady v. Maryland, 373 U.S. 83 (1963).

Bias by Informants or Cooperating Witnesses. We request disclosure of any information indicating bias on the part of any informant or cooperating witness. Giglio v. United States, 405 U.S. 150 (1972). Such information includes, but is not limited to, any inducements, favors, payments or threats that were made to the witness in order to secure cooperation with the authorities.

Jencks Act Material. We request production in advance of trial of all material, including dispatch tapes, which the Government must produce pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C. § 3500. Advance production will avoid the possibility of delay at trial to allow the defense to investigate the Jencks material. A verbal acknowledgment that "rough" notes constitute an accurate account of the witness' interview is sufficient for the report or notes to qualify as a statement under § 3500(e)(1). Campbell v. United States, 373 U.S. 487, 490-92 (1963); see United States v. Boshell, 952 F.2d 1101 (9th Cir. 1991) (agent's interview notes reviewed with interviewee subject to Jencks Act).
